The

first point of interpretation in the Thai scholars can be carried out according to the above mentioned principles as the Buddhist Scriptures, because it's interpreted through the developemet of the virtues, but the second point of interpretation in the Thai scholars be like the cash of the interpretation in a some of the second of Buddhist scriptures, because it can be interpreted cover the both of meanings of Padaparamapuggala namely: it can be interpreted considering of development the vertures, education and also, however, this is the difference of the interpretation in the Thai scholar, but the difference of interpretation be likes a cash of difference of interpretation in a some of the second of Buddhist Scriptures.
