

Dissertation Title : The Model of Monastery Administration for The Drug Addicts
Rehabilitation Center in Pathum Thani Province

Researcher : Phrakhru Athonthanyanurak (Montri Thitasilo)

Degree : Doctor of Philosophy (Buddhist Management)

Dissertation Supervisory Committee:

: PhraPalad Raphin Buddhisaro B.A. M.A. Ph.D (Buddhist Studies)

: Asst. Prof. Dr. Termsak Thongin, B.A., M.A., Ph.D.(Plo.Sc.)

Data of Graduation : 31 March 2015

Abstract

This dissertation aimed to study 1) To study the temple situation for the center of drug-addiction rehabilitation in Pathum Thani Province 2) To analysis the Principle & the method to resolve the problem of drug-addiction by temple in Pathum Thani Province and 3) to propose the model for the temples as a center of drug-addiction rehabilitation in Pathum Thani Province. the research methodology were the qualitative research method by in-depth interview for 25 participants and by the 12 experters discussion and data analysis technic : such as the logical approach technic

The result of research were concluded as follows :

1) The temple situation for the center of drug-addiction rehabilitation in Pathum Thani Province should to have the place and good location, which are the facility of good place for these 2) to principle and the method to management the center of drug-addiction rehabilitation found that, the policy dimension should to have the continuing for practical, by clear to support the management, resources, money, man, material and the others, the management system should to have a systematic design and controlling, and for the unit operation, found that, the temples for all, by the good communication, good Co-ordination, and 3) the model for the temples as a center of drug-addiction rehabilitation, found that, the chief of monks all temple, should to have the leadership style to leading all activity of rehabilitation process, Co-ordination unit, the medical team to care and healing the physical illness of patients, and redeems of temple, for the suitable Dhamma to give for mental illness of patients, the key success factors of the rehabilitation program are the participation process, from their parents, the localized administration, the civil society and, the Co-operation from school.